FOREWORD

"If a man die, shall he live again?" Job asked it in the oldest book of the Bible, and every philosopher, scientist and grieving heart has asked it since. In this message, preached at a crusade in South Carolina, Billy Graham takes up that ancient question and answers it with "a resounding yes."

Dr. Graham reminds us how brief life is and how certain death is, then points to the one Person who can speak with authority on the subject, because He came back from the grave. He tells of a private meeting with Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, whose first question was, "Do you believe in life after death?" He explains why the real you will live forever in one of two places, why hell was never made for man, and how Christ took our hell on the cross.

His tone is solemn yet full of hope, and his conclusion is personal: "I know my sins are forgiven. I know I'm going to heaven."

In preparing this edition, we have preserved the preacher's message and wording. We removed time stamps and broadcast material, trimmed a few spoken repetitions, arranged the transcript into chapters with subheadings, and corrected punctuation, capitalization and obvious transcription errors.

May these pages help you settle the most important question of all, and know that you have eternal life.

CHAPTER 1

IF A MAN DIE

THE OLDEST QUESTION

I want you to turn with me to Job, the fourteenth chapter and the fourteenth verse. Now, Job is in the Old Testament, and it's the oldest book in the world. There is no known book in the world as old as the Book of Job.

And yet Job asks a question that I'm sure disturbs many of you tonight. He asked a question that every great philosopher has wrestled with. He asked a question that every great thinker and intellectual at some time wrestles with. He asks the same question that one of the greatest scientists in this country asked me about three weeks ago. He said, "Science knows nothing about it, but I'm disturbed about it and worried about it." Here is the question:

> If a man die, shall he live again?
> JOB 14:14

If a man die, shall he live again?

CHAPTER 2

A TIME TO DIE

AFTER THE FUNERAL

The problem of life and death: haven't you ever thought about that? You've been to a funeral. For a few moments you're solemn; you're thoughtful. That night you go back, you go to bed, and you think about it: "One of these days they're going to be taking me out to the cemetery. They'll be saying some words over me. Is that the end? Is it all over?"

Do you know what the Bible says? The Bible says there's "a time to be born, and a time to die." Birth is a happy event. Death is a tragic event, and we have tears.

BUT HE DIED

You take the fifth chapter of Genesis and you'll see the list of all those men that lived to be old men. Adam lived 930 years, but he died. Methuselah lived 969 years, but he died. I read about a man the other day in Brazil who they claim lived 134 years—but he died. At the end of every life is death.

LIFE IS BRIEF

Life is very brief. The Bible says it's "a tale that is told." It's "a weaver's shuttle." It's a flower that fades. It's like the grass that withers. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow expressed it once when he said:

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

And that's exactly where we're all headed. "It is appointed unto man once to die." "Thou shalt die, and not live."

ARE YOU READY?

Now, the great question is: Are you ready to meet God? Because the Bible says, "It is appointed unto man once to die, but after that the judgment." There is something after death, according to this Book.

Now again, I say I can't take you to a scientific laboratory and prove it to you. But this Book teaches, from Genesis to Revelation, that this life is only a preparation room for eternity. There is another life. The Old Testament teaches it. The New Testament teaches it. Jesus taught it. The apostles taught it.

CHAPTER 3

THE ANSWER IS YES

A RESOUNDING YES

If a man die, shall he live again? That's the question Job asked. That's the question that millions are asking tonight. And the answer from the Bible is a resounding yes. Yes! There is a life after death.

SOMETHING DOWN INSIDE

Cicero, the great Roman, said, "Upon this subject I entertain no more than conjecture. I've spent a great deal of my life searching for the answer."

Mrs. Roosevelt—Eleanor Roosevelt—in one of her columns a few years ago, said it's instinctive for man to believe in life after death. And it is. You never find a tribe anywhere in the world, you never find a culture, you never find a civilization anywhere in history that didn't believe in some form of life after death.

When the early forefathers and pilgrims came to this country, they thought they had found some tribes of Indians in New England that didn't believe in life after death. But they soon found, when they communicated with them, that they believed in the Happy Hunting Ground. Yes, man instinctively—something down inside—says there must be a future life. There must be something beyond this life.

THE ONLY AUTHORITY

But after all, there's only one authoritative Person who can speak on this subject, because He came from the grave. He rose. And His name was Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 4

“IF CHRIST IS ALIVE”

A VISIT WITH ADENAUER

About two or three years ago I had the privilege of having an interview with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, in his last year in office as Chancellor of Germany. I was preaching in Germany, and he had invited me to come and see him. I didn’t know what about. I was quite surprised, and of course flattered, to get the invitation. And I went.

He greeted me—a big, tall giant of a man, the man that had almost single-handedly brought democracy back to Germany after the war. And I wondered, “What does this great man want of me?”

"DO YOU BELIEVE?"

The first question he asked me was this. He said, “Do you believe in life after death?”

I said, “Yes, sir, I do. I believe the Bible teaches it.”

He said, “I do too.” He said, “I am studying the resurrection of Jesus Christ. And when I leave office as Chancellor, I intend to spend the rest of my life studying the resurrection of Christ. Because,” he said, “if Christ is alive, there is hope in the world. If Christ is not alive, there is no hope that I can see that civilization can be saved.”

Wasn’t that something?

CHAPTER 5

HE IS RISEN

THE GREATEST NEWS

Yes, Jesus Christ is alive. He rose from the dead. On that first Easter Sunday morning, when Mary and Mary Magdalene and Salome went to the grave expecting to anoint a dead body, they saw the angel sitting there. And they said, "Where is Jesus?" The angel said, "He is not here; He is risen."

I submit to you tonight that that's the greatest news the world has ever heard. He is not here! He has conquered the grave! He's alive!

WELL PROVEN

And ladies and gentlemen, I believe that there's more proof that Jesus Christ rose from the dead than of almost any other fact in Roman history. I don't believe there's a fact in ancient history today so well proven as the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

But even if there were no proof—no historical proof, no scientific proof (and there is)—I would still believe it, because I believe this Book is God's inspired Word. And the whole early church went up and down the country preaching the resurrection of Jesus Christ. That was the thing that shook the Roman Empire: that a man had risen from the dead, that He was alive, that death could not hold Him.

A LIVING SAVIOR

Christ is alive. He's a living Savior. And yet many of His followers and Christians live and act as though He's dead. He's not dead! He's alive!

And the Bible says that at a given moment, at a given signal, He's coming back to this earth to set up His kingdom. And what a kingdom it's going to be! It'll be a world in which there will be no tears, and no sorrow, and no death. There will be no suffering. There'll be no war. There'll be no police forces. There'll be no armies. It's going to be a glorious world, ruled by one Person, the Lord Jesus Christ.

He's alive! I've given my life not to a dead Christ, but to a living Christ. And I'm following a living Savior, and He's given me a song to sing. He's given me a flag to follow. He's given me something to believe. I have a reason for existence. I know where I've come from. I know why I'm here. I know where I'm going. Do you?

CHAPTER 6

ONE OF TWO PLACES

GET YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER

God said to Hezekiah, "Get your house in order; you're going to die." Now, you and I are going to die.

THE REAL YOU

Because, you see, the Bible teaches that you and I have a body, but living inside of our body is the real you. You're a real person, and that's the part of you that lives forever. Your body is going to go to the grave, but you—the real you, your intelligence, your memory, your personality—are going to live forever and ever, according to the Bible. You will never die. And you're going to spend a million years, a billion years, in one of two places—according to Jesus, not according to Billy Graham, but according to Jesus.

JESUS SPOKE OF HELL

Jesus talked a great deal about heaven, but He talked three times more about hell than He did about heaven. The other writers of the Bible don't have too much to say about hell, but Jesus talked about it all the time—in the Sermon on the Mount.

I've had fellows say, "I don't believe in hell. I live by the Sermon on the Mount." Well, you've never read the Sermon on the Mount! Jesus talked about it.

Now, what did He mean by it? He said, "The Son of man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth." What did He mean?

Matthew 25:41: “Then shall He say unto them on the left hand, Depart from Me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.” What did He mean?

NOT MADE FOR MAN

He is saying that hell was never made for man. He is saying that God will never send anybody to hell. If man goes to hell, he goes by his own free choice. Hell was created for the devil and his angels, not for man. God never meant that a man should go there. And God has done everything within His power to keep you out. He even gave His Son to die on that cross to keep you out.

A FREE MORAL AGENT

Because, you see, when God made you, He made you a free moral agent. You can live any kind of life you want to. You can live a good life; you can live a bad life. You can break God’s laws; you can obey them. You can shake your fist in God’s face, and there’s nothing God can do, because when He created you He gave you the gift of free choice. You’re not a robot, so that He pushes a button and you jump and obey. You’ve got a right to resist God, to reject God.

CHAPTER 7

HE TOOK OUR HELL

IN SPITE OF OUR REBELLION

But the Bible says that in spite of our rebellion and rejection, God loves you. He loves you so much that He gave His Son to die for your sins.

And when Christ died on that cross—we don't understand all that happened on that cross, but we know one thing: He took the hell and the judgment that you deserved, and I deserve, because of our sins. He took it on that cross.

"WHY HAST THOU FORSAKEN ME?"

And that's why that terrible expression comes from His lips: "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" Because, you see, the very meaning of hell is separation from God. And in that terrible moment a shadow passed between God the Father and God the Son, for the first time since eternity began.

Christ was dying for you, and He suffered the pangs of hell. He became guilty of lying. He became guilty of slander. He became guilty of jealousy. He became guilty of the most filthy, dirty sins. And when those sins came into His soul—your sins and my sins came into His soul—God could not look, because God cannot look upon iniquity. God is so holy. Christ took the hell that you and I deserve on that cross.

CHAPTER 8

ETERNAL LIFE NOW

IT'S ALL FREE

Now God says, "Receive Him. Believe in Him. Put your trust and your confidence in Him, and I will forgive your sins, and I will guarantee you eternity in a place called heaven." It's all yours, and it's all free. All you have to do is receive it. What an offer! He offers you eternal life tonight.

Now, eternal life doesn't begin the moment you die. When you die as a Christian, eternal life doesn't begin there. Eternal life begins the moment you receive Christ.

THE AFTERGLOW OF YOUR PARENTS' RELIGION

Now, many of you here in South Carolina, and in North Carolina, and all over the country, have been reared in Christian homes. Or you go to church. You live a fairly decent life. And you're sort of living on the reflected afterglow of your parents' religion. But you've never really received Christ for yourself. You've never really trusted Him for yourself. You don't really know Him. You're not really sure that you're ready to meet God.

And the Bible says, "Prepare to meet thy God." Are you prepared? Are you sure you are prepared?

"THAT YOU MAY KNOW"

You know, the Bible says, "These things I write unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that you may know that you have eternal life."

I can stand here tonight without being egotistical, without being conceited. I can stand here tonight and say to you, on the authority of this Book: I know my sins are forgiven. I know I'm going to heaven. I know that I'm going to live as long as God lives, because the moment I received Christ, I became a partaker of God's own life. Now I'm going to live a billion years, and I'll only have begun.

BY GRACE

I know that, not because of any goodness of my own. I'm not going to heaven because I've lived a good life. I'm not going to heaven because I've preached to great crowds of people. I'm going to heaven because of what Christ did on that cross. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; that not of yourselves, not of works, lest any man should boast."

We're not going to heaven because we're good. We're not going to heaven because we work. We're not going to heaven because we pay. We're going to heaven because of what He did on the cross. And all I have to do is receive it.

SO SIMPLE

And it's so simple to receive Christ that millions stumble over its very simplicity. You see, God made it so simple that children can believe. He made it so simple and so easy that a blind man, a deaf man, a dumb man can believe. A man of any race can believe; a man of any nationality, of any language, can believe. And that's all God says you have to do to get to heaven: just believe.

Now, that word believe is a little more than maybe you think it is. It means commitment. It means surrender. It means that I give everything I have to Jesus Christ and trust Him alone for my forgiveness and my salvation. It means that the moment you receive Him, your name is written in the Book of Life.

Is your name in the Book of Life? Are you sure you're going to heaven? Are you prepared to meet God?

CHAPTER 9

THE INVITATION

DON'T LEAVE WITHOUT SETTLING IT

If there's the slightest doubt in your heart tonight that you're prepared to meet God, don't you dare leave here without settling it. Why? Because you may never have another hour, or another moment like this. You can't come to Christ any time you want to. The Bible says, "He that hardeneth his heart, being often reproved, shall suddenly be cut off, and that without remedy."

Thousands of people have prayed for this crusade. The Spirit of God has brought you here. Hundreds of people have come to Christ already in this crusade. The way is prepared. Your heart is prepared. The Spirit of God is speaking tonight. This is the hour. This is the moment. And you may never have this moment quite like this again.

COME AND STAND HERE

I'm going to ask you to commit your life to Christ: to make sure that your name is written in the Book of Life, to make sure that you're going to heaven, and to receive eternal life tonight. And here's the way we're going to do it.

I'm going to ask you to get up out of your seat right now—hundreds of you. Get up out of your seat and come and stand in front of this platform right now, quietly and reverently. I'm going to ask that nobody leave the service, please.

Get up out of your seat—men, women, young people. You may be members of the church. You may be an usher. You may be a choir member. Get up out of your seat and come and stand here. And after you've stood here, I'm going to say a word to you, have a prayer, give you some literature, and you can go back and join your friends. That's all there is to it.

SETTLED AND SEALED

But it's very important that you come and make this public declaration. Jesus said, "If you're not willing to acknowledge Me before men, I'll not acknowledge you before My Father which is in heaven." You get up and come right now. There's something about coming forward that settles it and seals it in your heart.

You get up and come quickly. And I'm going to ask that everyone be in prayer. Bow your heads and pray. Pray for the person to the right of you, and the left of you, and back of you, and in front of you. Perhaps no one ever prayed that they would come to Christ before.

Many people are already on the way. You get up and join them, and come. What an hour, and what a moment, for you to come to Christ! We're going to wait as you come.

(Announcer) You're watching the Billy Graham Classics. Please call the phone number on the screen right now for spiritual help and guidance.

(Announcer) As hundreds are responding to Mr. Graham's invitation to make a public commitment to Jesus Christ, you can make that same commitment right where you are. Just pick up the phone and call the number you see on your screen. Special friends are waiting to talk with you and pray with you about this most important decision.

A BRAND-NEW DIMENSION

And to you that have been watching by television, and you'll be leaving the service now in just a moment: you can make the same commitment and the same decision that these have made. And the same Christ that will come into their hearts and give them assurance will do the same for you.

You may be sitting at a bar somewhere. Maybe you're in your living room at home, or maybe you're in a friend's home. Maybe you're in some unusual place that I couldn't even think of at the moment. And you need Christ, and you need God in your life. You can receive Him right now, and He can bring about a tremendous change.

And then go to church on Sunday. Have a talk with a minister. Tell him the decision that you've made, and get to work for Christ, and live in this brand-new dimension of living: the spiritual dimension. Good night, and God bless you.

CLOSING WORDS

(Closing Announcement) If you just prayed that prayer with my father, or if you have any questions about a relationship with Jesus Christ, just call that number that is on the screen. There'll be someone there to talk with you, pray with you and answer those questions. And remember, God loves you! ABOUT THE SPEAKER

William "Billy" F. Graham Jr. (1918–2018) was raised on a dairy farm in Charlotte, North Carolina. In 1934, at age 15, he made a commitment to faith during a revival led by Mordecai Ham. He was ordained in 1939, graduated from Florida Bible Institute in 1940, and earned a B.A. from Wheaton College in 1943, where he married Ruth McCue Bell.

After pastoring in Illinois and serving as the first full-time evangelist for Youth for Christ International, Graham was vaulted into national prominence by the 1949 Los Angeles Crusade. This event launched decades of global outreach, including historic, extended crusades in London (1954), New York City (1957), Seoul (1973), and Rio de Janeiro (1974). Overall, he preached live to nearly 215 million people in over 185 countries and territories.

In 1950, he founded the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association (BGEA). Through BGEA, Graham hosted the syndicated Hour of Decision radio program for over 60 years, published Decision magazine, and authored 33 books—including bestsellers such as Angels: God's Secret Agents (1975) and his 1997 autobiography, Just As I Am.

A counselor to U.S. presidents, Graham appeared on Gallup's "Ten Most Admired Men in the World" list a record 61 times. His honors include the Presidential Medal of Freedom (1983), Congressional Gold Medal (1996), and an Honorary Knighthood (2001). Following his passing in 2018 at age 99, he lay in honor in the U.S. Capitol Rotunda, and a bronze statue of him was added to the U.S. Capitol in 2024. Billy and Ruth raised five children, 19 grandchildren, 44 great-grandchildren, and nine great-great-grandchildren.
