Foreword

This message, The Products of Wisdom, presents a timely and uncompromising unveiling of divine wisdom as a practical force for life advancement. It is not merely a theological exposition, but a Spirit-inspired instruction on how wisdom functions as the governing principle behind elevation, relevance, and lasting impact.

At the heart of this teaching is a clear emphasis: wisdom is not measured by accumulation of knowledge, but by its application. Throughout this sermon, the preacher draws a sharp distinction between information and transformation, showing that results in life are the direct expression of wisdom rightly applied.

This edition has been carefully edited to preserve the original voice, intensity, and spiritual authority of the preacher, while ensuring clarity, structure, and readability for devotional and study purposes. Every section has been formatted to help the reader engage not only with the message, but with the life-transforming principles embedded within it.

It is our prayer that as you read, the same spirit of wisdom at work in this message will find expression in your decisions, your work, and your overall life journey.

May this not only be read, but applied.

Introduction

We want to be focusing on result-producing wisdom.

Wisdom is described as applicable knowledge. Whatever you know that is not applicable is not wisdom. You may be a professor and still be a failure. You know it, but it is not applicable. What you apply, not just what you know, is what makes you wise.

Many people know it, but very few are applying it. It is application that brings about results.

The products of divine wisdom — does wisdom have products?

Let us look at one or two scriptures, especially from the book of Proverbs. In the Book of Proverbs, what we have is painted or pictorial knowledge. Proverbs can be described as pictorial knowledge — giving you a picture of knowledge that can be applied to the issues of your life.

By the way, I would like to recommend to you that all through this month, if you can, read through the Book of Proverbs. I have started doing that myself and have gone a bit far, so that you can get inspired with the spirit of wisdom.

Proverbs chapter 3, beginning from verse 13:

“Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.”
(Proverbs 3:13)

So your happiness is tied to your degree of wisdom.

Why?

Because:

“For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver...” (Proverbs 3:14)

Those who pursue silver have settled for less. There is something more than silver.

Whosoever gives you money has given you something less.

The greatest gift a man can give you is the gift of wisdom because by that he has shown you how to get silver — and something more.

The Scripture continues:

“She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.” (Proverbs 3:15)

Look at that.

What will wisdom do for you?

- Length of days
- Riches
- Honour
- Pleasantness
- Peace
- Life

These are products of wisdom.

The Lord Himself operated by wisdom.

“The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.” (Proverbs 3:19)

If God used wisdom to establish the earth, then wisdom remains the foundation for establishing anything in life.

Wisdom Is the Principal Thing

Proverbs chapter 4 verse 7 says:

“Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.” (Proverbs 4:7)

Say with me: The principal thing.

Stop settling for the minor. Go for the principal. What you go for determines what you return with. If you want to become a principal, go for the principal.

Verse 8 says:

“Exalt her, and she shall promote thee...” (Proverbs 4:8)

Look at that. Among the products of wisdom, one of the most visible is promotion.

Wisdom Produces Promotion

The number one product of wisdom we are considering this morning is promotion. Your promotion is at the mercy of your wisdom. If you are wiser, you will be better promoted.

All lasting promotion comes from wisdom. People remain on the floor because they are fools. I said in our all-night service that if you are a fool, you will end as a stool — people will keep putting their legs on you.

But if you are wise, you will go for the throne. When they saw the wisdom of Daniel, kings stood up for him. Wisdom exchanges your low position for a high position.

It is not the legs of men that bring promotion. That I have discovered from Scripture. It is not who you know, but what you display that brings about your promotion. Not who you know — but what you display.

What is upstairs here is what takes you up there. If your brain is dull, your destiny will be low. If your brain is anointed of God and sharp, your place at the top will be preserved. I have never needed to lobby for anything in my life. To where I am today, by the grace of God, it is the wisdom with which I am operating — the wisdom of God.

Exalt her, and she shall promote thee.

Wisdom Makes You Relevant

Place value on wisdom, and wisdom in turn will place you on a high value in life. Do not try to use human methods to work your way to the top. It may not last. When wisdom lifts you, it keeps you wherever it has lifted you. With the wisdom of Daniel, he remained relevant. Daniel transcended the reign of three kings.

The first king came — he excelled.

When that king died, they thought everything was over. Suddenly, they called for him again. There he excelled.

When they needed him again, they called for him again. Wisdom makes you relevant everywhere you go. Truly wise people do not beg for jobs. Jobs look for them. Truly wise people do not struggle to be placed on boards. Wisdom speaks. Wisdom produces works that speak.

Your Works Will Speak for You

Daniel once thought promotion came by recommendation. When the prisoner whose dream he interpreted was leaving prison, Daniel gave him what could be called his complimentary card: “When you get there, make mention of me to the king.”

But the man got there and forgot him. Until one day the king had a troubling dream. They needed an interpreter. Suddenly, they remembered Daniel’s works. And his works became the address of his location. They went to the prison and brought him out.

Instantly, he was promoted. Promotion is the aspiration of everybody. Nobody likes stagnation. Nobody likes to remain on the same spot all their lives. Promotion is advancement in life.

Elevation.

Positive change of status.

To be promoted means to be entrusted with higher responsibilities. And that only comes to those who have exhibited a high degree of wisdom. What has promoted this ministry today is wisdom.

The Faster Wisdom Comes, the Faster Promotion Comes. Jesus Christ is the Wisdom of God. As you partake of His blood today, wisdom shall be transferred to you. The wiser you are, the faster your promotion will come.

Wise Behaviour Brings Promotion

In 1 Samuel 18:5: “And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely...”

And what happened?

Saul set him over the men of war. Wisdom preceded his lifting. He behaved himself wisely, and the king promoted him. Promotion means to be set over. There is wise behaviour, and there is foolish behaviour.

Most people who think they are being persecuted today are simply behaving foolishly. What many Christians call persecution today is pure foolishness. For instance, you do not get to your workplace and start reading your Bible during official work hours when work is waiting.

There is time for everything. Break time is there, use break time. Do not call foolishness persecution. If you signed your employment letter, honour the terms.

Wisdom knows timing. Wisdom knows order.

Wisdom Makes You Needed

David worked in an environment where the king did not like him. Saul feared him. Saul even threw a javelin at him to kill him. Yet in the midst of that, Saul kept promoting him. That means you can be promoted by people who hate you — by the operation of wisdom inside you. It is what you do that they cannot ignore.

People keep you not because they like you, but because they need you. And wisdom makes you produce what makes people need you. That was the case with Joseph. The Egyptians did not love him.

A stranger.

A prisoner.

Yet they could not ignore him.

Why?

Wisdom.

Joseph said:

“Look for a discreet and wise man.”

They searched and found none. Then they said, “Joseph, we still need you.” Wisdom gives you what others do not have. That is what makes people unable to do without you.

The Wisdom Path to Promotion

What does wisdom teach us if we want promotion?

Proverbs 22:29: “Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.”

Diligence brings promotion.

Proverbs 12:24:

“The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.”

If you are lazy, you will be under tribute. If you are not diligent, you will be demoted. You will be unneeded. Somebody may say, “You do not know the system.”

But I would rather make the Scriptures my reference point. This Book is superior to any system. It is not subject to climate. It is not subject to nation.

Anywhere it is applied, it works.

What Is Diligence?

What then is diligence?

Working hard is not enough. Working wisely is what matters. Diligence is commitment to work. Commitment with your hands and with your brain. The highest productivity comes when the hand and the brain are combined. That is when your mind is inspired with divine ideas, producing uncommon innovation, and your hands bring those ideas into physical manifestation. The real work begins from the mind.

The hand is only the medium of communicating what the mind has generated.

Real work is mental work.

The Employer Mentality

A few days ago, I was teaching students at Covenant University. I defined the difference between an employer and an employee. An employer is one who has more than enough work and needs people to help execute it. When you have more than enough work, you stop being an employee and become an employer. In most cases, the employer works with his mind.

He has an idea.

He has innovation.

He has something too large to execute alone. So he employs others to extend the effect of his mind. That means if you become wiser, you will become an employer.

You will engage people to carry out the work for you.
