Foreword

There are truths in Scripture that do not merely improve life—they preserve, elevate, establish, and distinguish destiny. Wisdom is one of such truths.

In this timely and deeply illuminating message, Dividends of Wisdom (Pt. 1), Dr Pastor Paul Enenche unveils the tangible outcomes of walking in the wisdom of God. With prophetic insight, practical clarity, and uncompromising Scriptural foundation, this teaching reveals that wisdom is not an abstract virtue reserved for scholars or theologians—it is the covenant advantage of the believer.

Across these pages, the reader is led through powerful dimensions of wisdom's profitability: peace, pleasantness, prosperity, preservation, prestige, and promotion. The message repeatedly establishes a truth often forgotten in a noisy and pressured world—that the wisdom of God produces both stability and distinction.

What makes this sermon especially impactful is its balance of spiritual depth and practical application. The wisdom discussed here is not theoretical. It is wisdom for relationships, decisions, assignments, finances, destiny, and longevity. It is wisdom that protects from needless battles, wisdom that grants rest in the midst of responsibility, and wisdom that positions a life for relevance and honour.

At LivingSermons.com, our mission remains to preserve and amplify transformational Kingdom teachings for believers across generations. It is our prayer that this message will not only inform you but transform your thinking, sharpen your discernment, and reposition your life for greater impact.

May the Spirit of wisdom rest upon you afresh as you read.

Begins Here

Introduction

Father, we give You the praise for tonight. We appreciate You. Thank You because You are God. It is in You we live, and move, and have our being. I am asking at this moment that You will breathe upon this service. Give everyone here today a reason to testify that we have not wasted our time coming here. Blessed be Your Name. Honour to Your Name. Adoration to Your Name.

In Jesus' precious Name.

Give the Lord a big clap and a shout of praise. A big, bigger clap and a louder shout. Please be seated in the Presence of the Lord.

Hallelujah!

I welcome everyone here tonight in the precious Name of Jesus Christ.

What is happening here is happening everywhere. A woman and her husband, trusting God for the fruit of the womb for nine years, had two encounters with God using my face to minister to her. In the second encounter, she said that God took a needle and syringe, tapped her abdomen, aspirated fluid from there, and told her that was the reason she had not been pregnant. He told her that as long as that thing remained there, she would never conceive.

Immediately after that encounter, she took in and they presented their baby boy this morning, all the way from Warri.

God is visiting people in the realm of the spirit and visiting people in the realm of the physical. He will visit you.

Lift up your right hand and tell the Lord now:

“Lord, I am ready for my visitation. I am ready for my visitation.”

Go ahead and speak to God.

Lord, make me a practical instrument for You. Use me, Lord. Thank You, Master.

In Jesus’ precious Name.

Please be seated. The Lord bless you.

Wisdom Is Profitable

Proverbs 3:13–19

“Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.

For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.” — Proverbs 3:13–18 (KJV)

Tonight, I will be speaking quickly on the subject:

Dividends of Wisdom

That simply means the profit of wisdom. Our objective tonight is to understand the dividends or profitability of wisdom. The Scripture makes it very clear that wisdom is profitable.

Ecclesiastes 10:10

“If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.” — Ecclesiastes 10:10 (KJV)

What does that mean?

It means that it pays to walk in wisdom, and it costs to be devoid of wisdom.

Tonight, we shall be examining the profit, the dividends, and the rewards of the wisdom of God.

What does wisdom pay?

The Peace of God

The first dividend of wisdom is:

1. The Peace of God

Proverbs 3:13, 17

“Happy is the man that findeth wisdom...”

“Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.” —
Proverbs 3:13, 17 (KJV)

The easiest way to know that wisdom is available is when peace is available.

The presence of peace is a confirmation of the presence of wisdom, and the absence of peace is a confirmation of the bankruptcy of wisdom.

Listen to this carefully:

Anything that puts your life under pressure is lacking in wisdom.

Every operation, every endeavour, every decision that puts your life under pressure and causes you to lose your peace is lacking in the wisdom of God.

Never allow anybody to pressurise you into disaster.

In finding the will of God, there is something called the peace test.

There are many who did not pass the peace test, yet they went ahead into marriage. The conviction did not pass the peace test, yet they proceeded on the journey.

Am I communicating?

It is very important.

Crisis is proof of wisdom bankruptcy.

Where there is crisis every day in a home, one person is lacking wisdom, or both persons are lacking wisdom.

The way of wisdom is the way of peace.

When you see a person walking in wisdom, no matter the enormity of the assignment, that person remains peaceful. You cannot feel tension around such a person.

No pressure.

How much have we accomplished that our lives should be full of pressure?

I said this many years ago, and I say it again:

Do not respect anybody enough to make a move when you have lost your peace.

Wisdom is also the capacity to say “No” when “No” must be said.

2. Pleasantness and Pleasure in Life

Proverbs 3:13, 17

“Happy is the man that findeth wisdom...”

“Her ways are ways of pleasantness...” — Proverbs 3:13, 17 (KJV)

If life must be enjoyed and not endured, wisdom is a capital requirement.

It is possible to enjoy life, and it is possible to endure life.

Wisdom gives access to the mind of God, access to the plan and purpose of God, and access to the right way of doing things. That is what produces pleasantness and pleasure.

There are people today enduring marital relationships, enduring parenting, enduring assignments, while others are enjoying them.

The other day, I was in the office here on a Sunday evening around eight or nine p.m., and I told myself:

“Every normal person is relaxing somewhere now.”

But then I asked myself another question:

“What else would I rather be doing?”

The answer was a capital No.

Wisdom makes your work become your hobby.

What is your hobby? Football? Travelling? Chilling out?

The wisdom of God plants you in what you are meant to do with your life, and what you do with your life becomes what you enjoy doing for the rest of your life.

There is nowhere else you would rather be than doing what you were created to do.

That is pleasantness.

You remain fresh all the time. Your youth is renewed because you are living in pleasure and not pressure.

Every pressure around your life today is over, in the Name of Jesus.

That is what will make you ask God:

“Lord, there is so much pressure in what I am doing. Is there a wisdom I need that I do not yet know? Show me.”

3. Prosperity and Provision From God

Anywhere wisdom is at work, supplies abound.

Proverbs 3:14–16

“For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.”

— Proverbs 3:14–16 (KJV)

You cannot genuinely carry the wisdom of God and remain empty-handed in life.

The way of wisdom is the way of wealth.

1 Kings 10:23–24

“So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.” — 1 Kings 10:23–24 (KJV)

The way of wisdom is the way of wealth.

Wisdom provokes wealth.

Any realm where you are wise is the realm where you will rise.

Wisdom shows you where money is hidden where others cannot see.

Wisdom and Wealth

Job 28

The whole chapter speaks about hidden treasures in the earth, treasures invisible to ordinary eyes.

Then the Scripture asks:

“But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?” — Job 28:12 (KJV)

That force that overturns mountains by the roots is called wisdom. That force that sees precious things where others see garbage is called wisdom. That force that sees wealth where others see waste is called wisdom. The way of wisdom is the way of wealth. And somebody here is exploding into that wisdom and exploding into wealth by that wisdom in Jesus' Name.

Wisdom is solution provision. When you solve problems, resources gravitate towards you.

4. Preservation of Life

Life is preserved by wisdom. To be wise is to last. To be foolish is to expire.

Proverbs 3:16

“Length of days is in her right hand...” — Proverbs 3:16 (KJV)

Ecclesiastes 7:17

“Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?” — Ecclesiastes 7:17 (KJV)

To be wise is to last. To be foolish is to fall. Many people have died needless deaths — the fool’s death. I remember as a young medical doctor working in the casualty unit during housemanship. It was Christmas Eve.

A young man was brought in dead, smelling heavily of alcohol. He drank excessively — foolishness number one. He rode a motorcycle with no headlight — foolishness number two.

He rode it at night — foolishness number three. Then he crashed straight into an oncoming Mercedes-Benz.

That was stupidity that resulted in calamity and mortality.

That is called a fool’s death.

When Abner died, David lamented:

2 Samuel 3:33

“Died Abner as a fool dieth?” — 2 Samuel 3:33 (KJV)

David wondered why a mighty general would allow himself to be trapped carelessly.

Today, I decree:

You will not die a fool’s death.

Any journey that will kill you, may you never make that journey.

Any friendship that will occasion your destruction, may God separate you from it.

Any relationship that will bring disaster into your life, may it fail before it begins, in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Anything you want to do that steals your peace — do not do it.

It is possible to keep your word and lose your life.

There is nothing compulsory in life except making Heaven.

It is not the ship in the water that sinks; it is the water inside the ship that sinks it.

The world may be full of crisis, but the crisis inside a person is what destroys the person.

Build the house when God helps you, but do not let the house build you.

5. Prestige and Honour

Proverbs 3:16

“In her left hand riches and honour.” — Proverbs 3:16 (KJV)

Wisdom makes a person honourable.

Wisdom places a person in the realm of prestige.

1 Samuel 18:5

“And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely...” — 1 Samuel 18:5 (KJV)

David became accepted, favoured, and respected because he behaved himself wisely.

When you walk in wisdom beyond your age, you command honour beyond your age.

Wisdom brings dignity.

Title without task is a waste.

Big head without brain is weight to the neck.

Title without mantle is battle.

Wisdom is what gives weight to honour.

Every trace of shame, reproach, and disgrace around your life today is deleted by the wisdom of God, in Jesus' Name.

6. Promotion From God

We have seen:

- Peace
- Pleasantness
- Prosperity
- Preservation of life
- Prestige and honour

Now we see:

Promotion From God

Daniel 1:20–21

“And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.” — Daniel 1:20 (KJV)

The wisdom of Daniel distinguished him. Wisdom lifts people. Wisdom promotes people. Wisdom separates people from the crowd and places them in positions of relevance and impact.
