Foreword

Every generation carries within it a divine invitation into higher living—a call not merely to survive, but to ascend. Pathway to High Destiny (Part 2) stands as a continuation of that clarion call, drawing the believer away from limitation and into the fullness of God’s ordained purpose.

This message is not theoretical; it is deeply instructional and spiritually practical. It confronts the believer with the reality that destiny is not accidental, neither is it passive. It is shaped—through vision, through association, and through the disciplined acceptance of responsibility.

In this volume, the reader is guided through foundational truths that govern elevation in the kingdom of God. Vision is revealed not as imagination, but as directional power. Association is unveiled not as convenience, but as a determinant of destiny. Responsibility is presented not as burden, but as the gateway into authority.

What makes this message particularly compelling is its clarity of spiritual law. It shows that where a man consistently sees himself, he ultimately becomes. It demonstrates that the company a man keeps can either accelerate or delay his arrival. And it establishes that responsibility willingly embraced becomes the platform upon which leadership is formed.

This is not just a sermon—it is a manual for elevation.

As you engage these pages, approach them with openness and reverence. Allow the Spirit of God to search your heart, adjust your vision, and refine your choices. The truths contained herein are not meant for admiration alone, but for application.

May this book awaken in you a renewed hunger for the high places of God. May it reposition your thinking, strengthen your resolve, and align your steps with divine order. And may it ultimately lead you into the reality of a destiny that reflects the glory of God.

On behalf of the entire editorial team at Livingsermons.com, I commend this work to you with expectation that it will not only be read—but lived.

Publisher's Note

This book is a faithful transcript of a live sermon delivered by the preacher under the inspiration and unction of the Holy Spirit. Every effort has been made to preserve the preacher's exact words, tone, flow, and spiritual authority, while carefully proofreading and formatting the message into a clear and readable ebook format.

The message you are about to read was originally ministered in a live congregational setting. As such, it carries the weight, urgency, and atmosphere of that sacred gathering. Minor grammatical and structural adjustments have been made solely to enhance readability, without altering the substance, intent, or power of the original delivery.

Livingsermons.com does not claim ownership of this message. All spiritual credit and ministerial authority belong to the preacher through whom the Word was delivered. Our role is that of stewards and editors—serving the Body of Christ by preserving and distributing life-giving messages in accessible digital formats.

Our commitment is excellence without dilution.

Our standard is reverence for the Word of God.

Our daily goal is to transform powerful live sermons into polished PDF and ebook editions for the edification of the Body of Christ.

It is our prayer that as you read, the same grace, conviction, clarity, and impartation present in the live service will minister to you afresh.

Introduction

We shall be rounding off on this subject today. And the media will do us a favour by giving a good recap for those who did not start with us. By the time we are ending the subject, you will be able to understand how this relates to mercy.

In the book of Matthew, Jesus declared:

“Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.” —
Matthew 5:14

The Lord bless His Word, in Jesus’ precious name.

The objective of this study is to understand the pathway to our high destiny in God.

Everyone familiar with this ministry knows that this month is our month of destiny. By divine providence, I rededicated my life to God on the 12th of May, 40 years ago. Also by divine providence, the vision for this ministry was given in the last weekend of May 1986.

Again, 40 years ago, our father in the Lord, Bishop David Oyedepo, received the vision for his ministry in the first weekend of May, between the 1st and 3rd of May 1981—45 years ago.

That is why we call this month our month of destiny, believing that everyone connected, associated, and related to this ministry is positioned for a destiny opening. If you believe that, say a loud Amen.

The High Place – God’s Ordained Position

---

We have seen in our study that the high place is God’s ordained place for His people—a city set on a hill. In Isaiah, the Scripture declares:

“And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord’s house shall be established in the top of the mountains...” — Isaiah 2:1-2

The Lord’s house shall be exalted. The people of God shall be exalted. This speaks of the mountaintop—the high place in the realm of the spirit.

That is our realm. In the material and physical realm, that is also our realm.

A practical example of someone who operated at high level in every realm is Daniel. Spiritually, Daniel was a man of unusual capacity. He was positioned above the magicians and astrologers in Babylon—not because he was one of them, but because he carried greater spiritual intelligence.

He was also positioned above the academicians and political systems of his day. Daniel became a living standard of what God intends for His people. In every realm—spiritual, financial, material, academic, mental—we are above the systems of the world.

And I prophesy: somebody is rising to the top in the name of Jesus.

Pathways To High Destiny

1. The Pursuit of God

When you pursue God, you possess heights.

“Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” — Matthew 6:33

2. The Fear of God

Job feared God, and that fear made him the greatest man in the East. The fear of God lifts a man into greatness.

3. The Voice of God

The voice of divine direction brought Abraham out of obscurity and turned him into a generational celebrity. The voice of God is the voice of elevation.

4. The Mercy of God

“I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy...” — Romans 9:15 (paraphrased KJV concept)

The mercy of God raised Jacob. It raised Solomon. It raised David, who walked in the sure mercies of David, positioning him above his generation.

5. Vision for the High Place

You cannot arrive where you do not see. You must see the high place to reach the high place. It is impossible to consistently see yourself in the pit and end up at the top.

6. The Right Company

Show me your friends, and I will show you your future. Association determines destination.

7. Acceptance of Responsibility

Acceptance of responsibility is the establishment of authority. It means doing what others avoid, going where others refuse to go, and taking initiative when others withdraw.

8. The Way of Excellence

The way to the high place is the way of excellence. To give the best to life is to get the best out of life. The way of quality is the way to authority. Show me a man or woman of quality, and I will show you a person of authority. Those who sow excellence reap eminence.

“Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings...” —
Proverbs 22:29

You cannot do things anyhow and go far in life. Excellence is non-negotiable. Examples:

- Daniel operated in the spirit of excellence and was promoted in Babylon (Daniel 6:1–3).
- David played skillfully and was brought into the palace (1 Samuel 16:18).
- Joseph was recognised as a man of uncommon wisdom and spirit (Genesis 41:37–38).

Many people pray for elevation, yet live in mediocrity. God’s hand is released where excellence is present.

9. Provision of Solution

The provision of generational answers is the pathway to generational assets. Joseph provided a solution to Egypt's famine crisis, and it lifted him to the palace (Genesis 41:36–44).

David provided a national solution by confronting Goliath, and it established his destiny (1 Samuel 17).

Those who provide answers become assets in their generation. If you are a generational answer, you will become a generational asset. The provision of solution is the foundation for elevation in life. What you give, you do not lack.

Those who give answers never lack answers.

Those who give solutions never lack solutions.

Problem solved and question answered determine the value of a man's life. Your value is not in what you wear or possess, but in the problems you solve. A cleaner who solves relevant problems may be more valuable than a professor who does not address immediate needs.

To increase your value on earth, solve more problems and answer more questions.

David's value was recognised when he was needed in Saul's palace. Though a shepherd, he solved a problem others could not solve, and he was lifted immediately.

When people come from behind and move ahead of you, ask not only why—but what are they solving that I am not solving?

Promotion is not always opposition; it is often solution. David overtook others because he carried answers. May God make you a solution to your generation, in Jesus' name.

Amen.

About Living Sermons

Living Sermons is a Spirit-led publishing platform dedicated to transforming timeless messages of God’s servants into books that can reach and impact lives across the world.

Our mission is simple: to preserve the wisdom, revelation, and anointing carried in the preached Word and make it accessible in formats that can be studied, shared, and revisited for generations. By turning sermons into high-quality Christian books and eBooks, we extend the life and influence of each message far beyond the pulpit.

At Living Sermons, we believe that the preached Word is living and powerful (Hebrews 4:12). Every sermon carries truth that can instruct, comfort, rebuke, inspire, and transform. Our role is to faithfully capture these words, polish them for clarity and readability, and present them in a way that maintains the preacher’s unique voice and anointing.

Through our work, messages that might otherwise be heard once are preserved as lasting resources for teaching, devotion, discipleship, and evangelism. These books are designed not just for reading but for equipping believers, strengthening families, and advancing the Kingdom of God.

Living Sermons—*the preached Word in lasting form.
