Foreword

It is with deep gratitude to God that we present this timely and life-preserving message by Dr Paul Enenche titled Preservation Wisdom (Wisdom for Preservation) Pt. 1.

In a generation where many seek preservation through physical means alone, this message unveils the higher wisdom that secures life, destiny, purpose, and divine assignment. Through the light of Scripture, Dr Paul Enenche reveals that preservation is not merely a product of prayer and fasting, but also the outcome of walking in divine wisdom.

This sermon is both prophetic and practical. It exposes the dangers of foolishness, carelessness, wrong associations, and disregard for divine direction, while simultaneously unveiling the pathways of safety through intimacy with God, the Word, faith, and spiritual sensitivity.

At LivingSermons.com, our burden remains to preserve and amplify kingdom voices so that transforming messages such as this can continue to reach lives across generations and nations. We believe this publication will not only instruct you but also impart fresh spiritual consciousness concerning the value of life, divine guidance, and covenant preservation.

We encourage you to read prayerfully, meditate deeply on the Scriptures shared, and allow these truths to shape your decisions, associations, and walk with God.

May the Lord preserve you from evil, establish your steps in wisdom, and cause you to fulfil your days in strength and purpose.

Grace and peace.

Publisher's Note

This book is a faithful transcript of a live sermon delivered by the preacher under the inspiration and unction of the Holy Spirit. Every effort has been made to preserve the preacher's exact words, tone, flow, and spiritual authority, while carefully proofreading and formatting the message into a clear and readable ebook format.

The message you are about to read was originally ministered in a live congregational setting. As such, it carries the weight, urgency, and atmosphere of that sacred gathering. Minor grammatical and structural adjustments have been made solely to enhance readability, without altering the substance, intent, or power of the original delivery.

Livingsermons.com does not claim ownership of this message. All spiritual credit and ministerial authority belong to the preacher through whom the Word was delivered. Our role is that of stewards and editors—serving the Body of Christ by preserving and distributing life-giving messages in accessible digital formats.

Our commitment is excellence without dilution.

Our standard is reverence for the Word of God.

Our daily goal is to transform powerful live sermons into polished PDF and ebook editions for the edification of the Body of Christ.

It is our prayer that as you read, the same grace, conviction, clarity, and impartation present in the live service will minister to you afresh.

Introduction

I welcome everyone here this evening to this preservation service in the Name of Jesus Christ.

I welcome you to the sixth month of the year 2022. I welcome you to our month of flowing grace and glory through the wisdom of God. Welcome to the preservation service of our month of wisdom.

Therefore, we shall be looking at the subject: Preservation Wisdom – literally, wisdom for preservation.

Wisdom for Preservation

It is made clear through Scripture that the way of wisdom is the way of life.

Ecclesiastes 7:12 says:

“For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.”

Wisdom gives life to those who possess it.

Proverbs 13:14 says:

“The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.”

Wisdom causes a man to connect with the fountain of life, and makes us depart from the snares of death.

Proverbs 15:24 says:

“The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.”

That is, the man who is wise will easily, neatly, and cheaply connect with the way of life that will make him depart from the hell beneath.

So, the way of wisdom is the way of life. On the contrary, the way of foolishness is the way of death.

It is possible for people to die before their time because of foolishness.

Ecclesiastes 7:17 says:

“Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?”

When a man is excessively wicked and excessively foolish, he can attract premature death.

Proverbs 10:21 says:

“The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.”

Fools die for want of wisdom.

Nobody here shall die a fool's death.

Proverbs 9:6 says:

“Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.”

Forsake everything that is foolish, including the fool himself, and you will live.

The truth is that not every cause of death is due to the wickedness of the devil. There are causes of premature death that are due to the strength of foolishness.

Preservation of life does not only answer to prayer and fasting. You may fast very well and pray very well, but if you are also foolish very well, it is plus one minus one equals zero. The fasting and prayer will produce no result.

There are wisdom keys and divine wisdom secrets in Scripture that facilitate the preservation of life and destiny.

I have many of them tonight, and I trust the Lord to help us touch as many as possible.

Dwell in the Secret Place

Divine wisdom key number one: dwell in the secret place of the Most High. Psalm 91:1 says:

“He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.”

Psalm 23:4 says:

“Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.”

To dwell in the secret place of the Most High means to maintain intimacy with God, because the way of intimacy is the way of security.

Maintaining that feelable, palpable, tangible presence of God is the secret of the preservation of life.

“For thou art with me.”

If I am sure that God is with me, I can fear nothing under heaven.

Possess Preservation Word

Number two: possess preservation word. Possess words from Scripture that guarantee your preservation.

Psalm 91:4 says:

“He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust:
his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.”

The truth is the Word.

John 17:17 says:

“Thy word is truth.”

His truth shall be thy shield.

Philippians 2:16 speaks of:

“Holding forth the word of life.”

1 John 1:1 says:

“That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life.”

Take note of the following:

First, the Word of God is a shield for life and destiny. To be worded is to be shielded.

Secondly, the Word of God is life itself. You cannot possess life and have destruction succeed over your life.

Thirdly, the Word of God is seed that reproduces after its kind.

Mark 4:14 says:

“The sower soweth the word.”

Luke 8:11 says:

“The seed is the word of God.”

So, when you sow preservation words such as:

“He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes; Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.” —

Psalm 105:14–15

When that word is sown into the soil of your heart, when you chew it, meditate on it, and allow it to take hold of you, it produces the result of preservation.

Do not move about with empty faith. Move about with a faith charged with the Word, confirming to the devil and to everyone around you that you are not one of those who die before their time.

Somebody say Amen.

Maintain Faith and Trust in God

Number three: maintain faith and trust in God.

Psalm 91:1–2 says:

“He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.”

Habakkuk 2:4 says:

“The just shall live by his faith.”

Ephesians 6:16 says:

“Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.”

Faith stops the fiery arrows from hell.

What does this mean?

First, faith is the life wire of the child of God.

Secondly, faith is a weapon of defence.

Thirdly, faith moves God into action to confirm what you believe Him for.

Hebrews 11:6 says:

“But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.”

There is a level of revelation from the Word that charges a person to the point where he says, “I cannot die like a chicken. I cannot be wasted like that.”

Where blood is flowing, yours cannot flow like that. If it will crash, you cannot enter it; and if you have entered it, it cannot crash.

Value Divine Guidance and Direction

Number four: value divine guidance and direction. Romans 8:14 says:

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.”

The Spirit of God leads God’s children. Psalm 23:1–4 says:

“The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.”

If I begin to stray toward disaster, because He is leading me, He pulls me back. Because He is leading me, even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil.

Take note of this:

First, the absence of direction is the presence of disaster. If God is not leading, the waters will be troubled. If God is not leading, there will be no restoration.

Secondly, the absence of direction is the abundance of destruction.

There are people who travelled on journeys they were not meant to take. There are people who entered relationships they were never meant to enter.

The Guided Man

Proverbs 22:3 says:

“A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.”

The guided man is the prudent man. He foresees evil and hides himself.

The simple man keeps moving carelessly and suffers the consequences because he cannot foresee what is ahead.

There are people who ignored divine warnings and nearly lost their lives.

Hear this: it does not matter how far you have gone in the wrong direction, a U-turn is possible whenever you discover it.

There is nothing compulsory in this life except making heaven.

No business appointment is too compulsory. No journey is too compulsory. No event is worth your destruction.

The marriage ceremony will continue after you are gone, but you shall not die before your time.

Do not live life by sentiment. Live life by principles.

Somebody say loud Amen.

Avoid the Wrong Company

Number five: avoid the wrong company. Proverbs 13:20 says:

“He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.”

Psalm 1:1–3 says:

“Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful:

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.”

Many people have died other people’s deaths.

Jonah entered a ship, and everybody inside almost perished because of him until they threw him out.

Many have died in accidents, parties, and dangerous situations simply because they went where they were not meant to be.

One striking example is the relationship between King Jehoshaphat of Judah and King Ahab of Israel.

Ahab invited Jehoshaphat to join him in battle. Then Ahab said:

“I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes.” —
2 Chronicles 18:29

The man whose battle it was disguised himself, while the innocent man wore the royal garments.

The Syrian army had been instructed not to fight anyone except the king.

So when they saw Jehoshaphat in kingly robes, they surrounded him to kill him.

But Jehoshaphat cried unto the Lord, and God helped him.

That was divine intervention.

If not for God, he would have been wasted in a battle that was not his own.

Many people today are in places they were never meant to be, doing things they were never meant to do, surrounded by people they were never meant to follow.

The enemy says, “I am not looking for you, but what are you doing here?”

About the Speaker

Dr. Paul Enenche is a Nigerian pastor, teacher, and revivalist, widely known as the Senior Pastor of the Dunamis International Gospel Centre. He is recognised for his passionate preaching, prayer ministry, and dedication to advancing the Gospel across nations.

Born in Orokam, Ogbadibo LGA of Benue State, Nigeria, Dr. Enenche founded the Dunamis International Gospel Centre on November 10, 1996, beginning with a small gathering in Abuja. About Living Sermons

Living Sermons is a Spirit-led publishing platform dedicated to transforming timeless messages of God’s servants into books that can reach and impact lives across the world.

Our mission is simple: to preserve the wisdom, revelation, and anointing carried in the preached Word and make it accessible in formats that can be studied, shared, and revisited for generations. By turning sermons into high-quality Christian books and eBooks, we extend the life and influence of each message far beyond the pulpit.

At Living Sermons, we believe that the preached Word is living and powerful (Hebrews 4:12). Every sermon carries truth that can instruct, comfort, rebuke, inspire, and transform. Our role is to faithfully capture these words, polish them for clarity and readability, and present them in a way that maintains the preacher’s unique voice and anointing.

Through our work, messages that might otherwise be heard once are preserved as lasting resources for teaching, devotion, discipleship, and evangelism. These books are designed not just for reading but for equipping believers, strengthening families, and advancing the Kingdom of God.
