Foreword

The Acts and the Assurances of Active Faith is a message about the difference between believing something in our hearts and expressing that faith through our actions, our words, our prayers, and our expectation of God.

In this message, Pastor W.F. Kumuyi takes us to the account of the paralytic man in Mark chapter 2 and draws our attention to a simple but powerful statement: “When Jesus saw their faith.” The faith of these men was not hidden. It became visible through what they did.

That thought carries through the entire message.

Faith believes. Faith speaks. Faith acts. Faith expects the Word of God to be fulfilled.

The message also repeatedly brings us back to the greatness and preeminence of God. Our problems may appear large, but they are never larger than the God we bring them before. As the Scripture declares, “there is nothing too hard for thee” (Jeremiah 32:17).

Another important emphasis of this sermon is the power of the Word in the believer's mouth. Pastor Kumuyi challenges the listener to stop giving greater authority to fear, past experiences, human limitations, or negative reports, and instead to speak the Word that God has placed in the heart.

The question, “What seest thou?”, becomes a call to see differently—to see salvation, healing, deliverance, fruitfulness, victory, and the possibilities that come from God.

This is not merely a message about having faith. It is a call to active faith.

The message moves from teaching into prayer and declaration. By its closing moments, the listener is being invited to respond personally: to repent, to believe, to speak the Word, to root out what must be removed, to pull down what must be pulled down, and to build and plant according to the purpose of God.

At LivingSermons.com, our purpose is to preserve messages such as this in written form so that the spoken Word can continue to reach people beyond the moment in which it was preached.

This ebook is therefore presented as a preserved record of the message, carefully edited for readability while retaining the preacher's voice, expressions, emphasis, and spiritual flow.

As you read, do not merely read about active faith.

Believe the Word. Act on the Word. Speak the Word. And let your faith become visible.

May this message strengthen your faith and turn your attention again to the God for whom nothing is too hard.

Publisher's Note

This book is a faithful transcript of a live sermon delivered by the preacher under the inspiration and unction of the Holy Spirit. Every effort has been made to preserve the preacher's exact words, tone, flow, and spiritual authority, while carefully proofreading and formatting the message into a clear and readable ebook format.

The message you are about to read was originally ministered in a live congregational setting. As such, it carries the weight, urgency, and atmosphere of that sacred gathering. Minor grammatical and structural adjustments have been made solely to enhance readability, without altering the substance, intent, or power of the original delivery.

Introduction

There are acts. You act it out. You hear it, you see it, you believe it, you accept it, and you live it. You act, you pray, you believe, and then you do as if you really believe.

The assurances—what we are assured of, what we're sure of—we act out. What we really know that we know, we act out. You're sure, because of that, you act, and you act according to what God has said. And there will be a performance; there will be a fulfillment in your life, in Jesus' name.

In my life, there will be a performance tonight. There'll be a fulfillment tonight.

Amen.

We're looking at Mark chapter 2. I'm reading from verse 5:

"When Jesus saw their faith..."

—Mark 2:5

When Jesus saw their faith, that is the one thing He is looking for.

Do you believe I can do this? You say, "Yes, Lord."

When Jesus hears it, do you know in the depth of your heart that He can move the mountain tonight? "Yes, Lord."

Do you believe that this longstanding problem, that tonight is the night the supernatural power of God will take it away from you? And you say, "Yes, Lord."

The moment you agree, the moment you are firm, the moment you know in your heart and you express your faith in action, you express your faith in a powerful, wonderful, practical way.

This is what they did.

The people I'm reading about here brought a paralytic man, and there was such a great crowd that they couldn't get in to get him to where Jesus was. But they believed all they needed to do was to get the man into the presence of Christ, and they knew once that took place, what had been a longstanding problem would vanish away.

So they didn't think the thoughts of unbelief.

You see, if we think the thoughts of unbelief, we will have the actions of unbelief. If we think the thoughts of unbelief, we will go on the road of unbelief. And the road of unbelief never leads to salvation, or to miracle, or to power.

But the steps of faith and the thoughts of faith brought the action of faith.

They went to the roof of that house. They located Jesus where Christ was. They removed a section of the roof, and they lowered the man and put the man right there in front of Christ.

And Jesus said, nobody can go that far in action, in faith, and not get something from Him, from heaven.

When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the sick of the palsy:

"Son, thy sins be forgiven thee."

—Mark 2:5

Some of the people there didn't have the understanding of who Christ was and what Christ could do, and what the Father had ordained and authorized that Christ, His only begotten Son, could do.

They began to say within themselves, "How can this man...?"

That was their problem. They saw Him as a man like themselves—a religious man, a traditional man, a Jewish man.

How can this man, just a man, forgive the sin of anyone?

How Can This Happen?

When you have a limited understanding of the name and the power and the might of Christ, you'll be thinking in your heart, "How can this happen?"

Jesus is not an ordinary man. He is Emmanuel. I said, He is Emmanuel, God with us.

And the Father has the power to give life. He also has the power to forgive sins. He is Christ, the very Son of God.

And so, in verse 11, it says:

"I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house."

—Mark 2:11

He didn't even have to touch the man. He didn't have to anoint the man. He didn't have to lift up the man. He didn't have to shake the man.

Because of His irresistible power, because of His healing power, because of His authority, He only had to say the word:

"I say unto thee, Arise, take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house."

Look at verse 12. What do you see there?

When is it going to happen to you tonight?

When will He roll your problems away?

When will He destroy the works of the devil in your life tonight?

When will He heal that brain problem?

When will He take that longstanding challenge away?

And immediately:

"And immediately he arose, and took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion."

—Mark 2:12

Read that part with me: "We never saw it on this fashion."

If every time we come before the Lord, what we see is what we have always seen, we have not really come into the presence of the Lord.

If every time we worship, every time we pray, every time we read the Bible, every time we interact spiritually—if what we see is what we have always seen, we're becoming traditional.

We're not expecting that Christ, who mightily is present over here, will do what we have never seen.

But they said, "We never saw it on this fashion."

When you do what you've never done, when you act the way you've never acted—

This was the first time that these four men had come into the presence of Christ. It was the first time they climbed up the roof and took away a section of it. They had never done that before.

When you have faith in the Lord like you never had before, when you believe in the Lord like you have never believed before, when you put all your heart, all your mind, all your soul, and you focus on Christ like you have never ever done before, the result is you will see a miracle you have never seen. You'll see a power manifestation you never saw.

When you believe the Lord and you say, "I never saw this. I never expected this," but now I'm expecting what I never expected. I'm praying for what I never prayed for. I'm receiving what I never received.

When you have that heart, when you have that mind, you will see in your heart, in your life today, something that never crossed your mind.

The power of the Lord will prove to you that nothing is ever too hard for Him.

We're talking about The Acts and the Assurances of Active Faith.

Three things we're looking at:

1. The Assuring Word of Power and God's Preeminence.
2. The Active Work into the Performance of God's Promises.
3. The Activated Wonders.

The Assuring Word of Power and God's Preeminence

God has preeminence over sickness, over evil power, over any challenge we have, over any difficulty we have. God has the preeminence.

And when you understand that, and you see, "Yes, I see problem there. I see sickness there. I see infirmity there. I see weakness. I see whatever, and I see the pressure." But I come to the One that has preeminence over everything—literally everything on earth, everything underneath the earth, anything in the sky, anything in the bush.

I come to the God that has preeminence.

Your problems are asking permission, "Let me go. Let me go," because problems cannot stand where you exalt the preeminence of the Almighty, of the Creator, of the Redeemer.

The Active Work into the Performance of God's Promises

Actually, when we come to the Lord, we literally walk into the performance.

The work of faith, the work of assurance—knowing that this is what He has said and He must fulfill it.

And by your confession, by your thoughts, by everything that you think about, and by the way you act, the way you position yourself, you literally walk into the performance of the miracle.

Tonight, I say tonight, you walk into the performance of the miracle.

The Activated Wonders

Wonder is there all the time in the presence of God.

It's like a dog is sleeping. Everything is quiet. No barking, nothing at all, until you activate and you wake up that dog.

But when people say, "Let the sleeping dog lie," don't activate anything, don't do anything, don't command anything, let things go on the way they have always gone, then miracles will not be activated. Wonders will not be activated.

But when you come and the faith in you that was dormant, that was sleeping, that was quiet—that faith is activated, miracle must happen.

And in the presence of God, as we come, we have activated wonders through prayer.

What you pray in God's presence, tonight is your night.

The Lord will touch you.

The Lord will turn everything around that had been dormant in your life, in Jesus' name.

The Assuring Words of Power and God's Preeminence

Look at number one there: The Assuring Words of Power and God's Preeminence.

Assuring words of power.

In Ecclesiastes 8:4:

"Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?"

—Ecclesiastes 8:4

God is the King of kings. Christ, the King of kings.

And when He speaks the word of forgiveness into your life, nobody can ask Him, "What doest thou?"

When He speaks the word of healing, the word of deliverance into your life, when He speaks the word to move your mountain, no matter how long it's been there, nobody, no devil, no demon, no man can say, "What doest thou?"

What does that mean?

He has final authority over your problem.

He has final authority over your sickness.

He has final authority over your predicament.

He has final authority because where the word of a king is, there is power.

You see here tonight, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

And because He is here, He is here as King.

He is here as Healer.

He is here as Redeemer.

He is here as the Mountain Mover.

And because He is here, He speaks.

And where the word of the King is, there must be power manifestation in your life.

In Jeremiah chapter 32, we're reading from verse 17:

"Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee."

—Jeremiah 32:17

If you could think about that for some time and then compare His power to the power that can heal you—the heavens and the earth, the stars, the sun, the moon, and all the planets in their different orbits.

He made them so orderly that they don't collide, and there is no collision that will kind of explode anything here on earth.

And He created the whole earth. He created the seas, the ocean, everything in the proper proportion.

Think about that.

And He creates every blade of grass. As you look at the blade of grass under a microscope, you see a wonderful, powerful symmetry and design.

And this is the God that created, that made the heaven and the earth by His great power.

When you think of that, then you understand: if He can do that, and He has done that, in your life there's nothing too hard for Him.

Your life—there's nothing too hard for Him.

By the way, do you remember how He created the heavens and the earth?

He spoke one sentence:

"Let there be light:"

Tell me, there was light.

And all the creation of God, with His word, He didn't have to go there for hundreds and thousands and millions of years trying to evolve, evolution trying to do this and that.

He spoke. It was done.

And in your life tonight, He will speak.

He will use a person you see in front of you as His microphone, but it seems He is talking to you, it seems He is speaking to you.

And He speaks a word—your sins are forgiven.

He speaks a word—your healing is guaranteed.

I have it tonight. It says, "And there is nothing too hard for thee."

Look at verse 27:

"Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?"

—Jeremiah 32:27

Any flesh sitting down, standing there today—where are they?

It's your God.

It's your Creator.

It's your Healer.

It's your Deliverer.

The God of all flesh.

"Is there any thing too hard for me?"

And since you have said no, you'll find tonight nothing, no problem that you brought, is ever going to be hard for Him, in Jesus' name.

The Active Walk into the Performance of God's Promises

Look at point number two here.

Point number two is the active walk into the performance of God's promises.

When God makes a promise, He wants to fulfill the promise. He has a mind that is going to fulfill the promise He has made.

Any promise of salvation:

"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

—Romans 10:13

The promise will be fulfilled for you.

"By his stripes I am healed."

You didn't say that properly. "By his stripes I am healed."

Will you be healed tonight?

If that thing is inside—liver, kidney problem, if something is inside, fibroid and cancer—and you say, "I feel it this way," at the mention of the name of Jesus tonight, all your pain, all your sickness, everything gone, in Jesus' name.

We activate the work of faith by what we say with our mouth.

We activate faith by the way we're thinking in our heart.

And we don't exaggerate the problem, lift up the problem, make the problem so big and our God so small. No.

We begin to think about the power of God, about the possibilities in God, about the goodness of God, about the promise of God, and about the fact that our problems, so to say, they're so tiny, like a little fly.

Even you can kill that fly and throw it away.

And all those flies of demonic oppression, and the flies of sickness, the flies of disease—they're healed tonight.

You will feel it in your body: the healing, the deliverance.

And you say, "I've been hearing of miracles. I got one."

"I've been hearing of people testifying. I got mine."

Confirmed in your life, in Jesus' name.

And so He tells us in Jeremiah chapter 1, reading from verse 9:

"Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth."

—Jeremiah 1:9

He'll touch your mouth.

I said, He'll touch your mouth.

When He touches your mouth, the things we used to say, we don't say them anymore.

When He touches our mouth, all that "I cannot" in our lives, everything will evaporate away.

"I cannot because I'm a little child." That one will vanish away.

"I cannot because I am sick." That one will vanish away.

"I can't do that because I am lame" That one will vanish away.

And the Lord put His hand and touched my mouth, and the Lord said unto me:

"Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth."

—Jeremiah 1:9

"I have put My words in thy mouth."

What does that mean?

He knew the word, but it wasn't in his mouth. He learned the word; it wasn't in his mouth. He heard the word, but it wasn't in his mouth.

When he heard the word, what he was speaking out was different from the word.

But now the Lord said, "I have put my word in your mouth."

The meaning is that Word is now there. If you say it, it will be done.

It's no more in the prophet's mouth, in the preacher's mouth, only in God's mouth. It is now in your mouth.

Are you determined by pronouncing, by repeating the word in your mouth?

"I am healed."

Heaven will confirm it.

"I am delivered."

Heaven will confirm it.

Now you speak the words in your mouth, and you don't say, "I'm dying."

Be careful. You are not dying.

"Uncle died at this age. Cousin died at this age. Mama died at this stage. I've got to the stage; I am going."

No.

That's not the word He put in your mouth.

Speak the word that God has put in your mouth, and revival will come to every part of your being, in Jesus' name.

"Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth."

My words—not their words.

My words.

I have put My word, not your family's word, the doctor's word, the nurse's word, the medical examination word.

You have the Word higher than anybody is telling you.

You will live. You will be revived. And all those sicknesses and crawling things are off your life, in Jesus' name.

Look at verse 10.

"See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms..."

—Jeremiah 1:10

I have set thee this day.

You know our problem?

We come to the revival.

We come to the night of supernatural wonder, and He puts a word in our heart that we didn't have before we came. He puts a word in our mouth that we didn't have before we came, and He puts an authority, an anointing upon us that we didn't have before we came.

But the unfortunate thing is, the people still go on saying what they were saying when the Lord had not touched them.

They go back to their past and the things they used to say, and the things they used to do, and the thoughts they used to think. They're still thinking the same thoughts.

No, no. That's not right.

When He said, "This day," I'm doing something to you that you didn't have before, then you come up to that level, and you act and you stay at the level you ought to stay.

See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms:

"...to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant."

—Jeremiah 1:10

To root out anything that stands in your way. To root out anything that wants to say, "Who do you think you are?"

Well, it says, "I am a new man. I have a new word in my mouth that was not there before. I have a new position, a new power."

"Who are you?"

"I'm a man now. I'm talking for you. I'm a woman now. I'm talking for you of authority."

And so, when you realize this is what I have done for you this day, you go out. You root out. You will pull down. You will destroy every plant the heavenly Father has not planted.

In your body, your heart, your business, in your profession, in your education—everything the heavenly Father has not planted, you will not be calling on other people now.

The authority is with you.

Root it out. Pull it down. Destroy that thing, and it is destroyed, in Jesus' name.

And then, to throw down.

You see all those things? Once you say, "This will not continue in my life," I root it out.

"You know, people are watching there. People will not allow me to make progress, and they always put that stumbling block in my way."

Why don't you root it out tonight?

Why don't you pull it down tonight?

Why don't you throw it down?

Your life will be according to the plan of Heaven. It will not be according to what somebody says: "You know, he will not allow him to go beyond this point in education."

Who is that?

When we have the performance of the King of kings and the Lord of lords, and the preeminent God has made us, and He has said, "This is where I am taking you," anybody between you and that high point in your life—rooted out tonight, pulled down tonight, destroyed tonight.

The enemy will not determine the level where you stop.

God in you, you in Christ—already you have the power. Destroy them and throw it down.

And to build—you will build.

You will build your life. You will build your family. You will build the work of your hands.

I'm looking at you there: you will succeed.

I said, you will succeed.

Believe the Word.

Believe your own utterance.

Believe what you say, and believe what you sing.

The choir tonight, God bless you. You sang, "What a mighty God we serve." And you sang that nothing, absolutely nothing, is too hard for Him. You blessed the church. Let those same words bless you, so that you're not just lifting up other people. You yourself, by the fruit of your mouth, by the word of your mouth, you are lifted up, in Jesus' name.

And so you have that Word that says He will make you build and make you plant.

Look at verse 11:

"Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, What seest thou?"

—Jeremiah 1:11

Every time you read the Bible, in your quiet time, what seest thou?

What do you see about yourself? About the Word?

Every time you come to the night of supernatural wonders, what seest thou?

What do you see now?

Do you see miracle coming your way?

Do you see power in your life?

Do you see authority that even the devil cannot contradict?

Every time, every time, every time, the question comes: "What seest thou?"

And I said, "I see a rod and an almond tree."

I see a rod of an almond tree.

Your life will not remain a dry rod. It shall become a fruit-bearing rod and branch, in Jesus' name.

Your wife will not remain a dry rod. She will be a fruit-bearing vine, in Jesus' name.

Your son, your daughter, will not be a dry rod. They will not stop at a level of education where you stopped. No matter how far you went, how high you went, your son will go beyond you. Your daughter will go beyond you.

And nobody now—nobody now that you are spending your time with—will be a dry rod.

They will be fruit-bearing.

I said, they will be fruit-bearing.

Look at verse 12:

"Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it."

—Jeremiah 1:12

When I see a miracle coming my way, God says to me, "Thou hast well seen."

When I see the dry rod of the past becoming a fruit-bearing rod, and He asks me, "What do you see?" and I say, "I see fruitfulness," He says, "Thou hast well seen."

Anybody seeing well there tonight?

And it says:

"For I will hasten my word to perform it."

God will hasten His word to be performed in your life, even tonight, in Jesus' name.

The words of salvation—He'll perform the word.

The word of healing—He'll perform.

The word of wonders—He will perform in your life, in Jesus' name.

Performance. Performance.

Where will that performance be tonight?

Really, really seriously now—seriously—where will the Word be performed tonight?

Confirmed, in Jesus' name!

Activated Wonders Through Prayers in God's Presence

We're looking at number three here.

Number three: we're looking at the activated wonders through prayers in God's presence.

We are in God's presence, and the Lord will activate wonders in every life tonight, in Jesus' name.

Every promise that has been lying dormant there, the Lord will wake up that promise into your life tonight, in Jesus' name.

Everything He has injected into your life—the goodness of God, the power of God, the great possibilities we have in God—that have been there, and you know each is sleeping somewhere there in your mind, if it can only wake up, everything will become all right tonight in your life.

Steady, steadfast salvation in your life.

Dynamic healing.

The demonstrated healing wonders of deliverance activated in your life tonight, in Jesus' name.

In the presence of God, always there are wonders.

The ocean of wonders never dries up in the presence of God.

The great power for wonders never dries up in the presence of God.

You know, people that don't understand God, they say, "The God of wonders—what He used to do. The God of power—what He used to do."

No.

There is no past tense in God.

I said, there is no past tense in God.

Yesterday, today, and forever, He makes His wonders come alive in every life, in Jesus' name.

Look at Psalm 16. I'm reading from verse 11:

"Thou wilt shew me the path of life..."

—Psalm 16:11

Thou wilt show me.

And you see those people in Bible days—that's how they defeated Goliath.

That's how the rod of Moses opened the Red Sea.

That's how the rod brought water out of the rock.

Because they personalized the promise of God, the performance came to them.

And they didn't say, "The Lord will show us. The Lord will show them in the generation to come. When after we have gone..."

No.

At this time, the Lord will show me.

Say it: The Lord will show me.

"Thou wilt shew me the path of life..."

Not the path of death.

Not the path of depression, stress, distress.

Uh-uh. From tonight, all that is gone.

The path of suffering, sickness—all that is gone.

The path of regret and remorse and reproach—uh-uh. That one tonight is gone.

"Thou wilt shew me the path of life."

"...in thy presence..."

In Thy presence.

Where are you tonight?

In Thy presence.

I say, where are you tonight?

You know some people come to church and they say, "I am under oppression. I am under sickness. I am under a curse."

In God's presence, can there be a curse that will remain?

Tell me.

In God's presence, can there be another power coming from any other place that will abide?

No.

Change your thoughts. Change your language.

Your life will come from the bottom of the sea and come to the very top.

You remember Jonah was right there, down deep in the bottom of the sea. But when he said, "Salvation is of the LORD," and he said, "I will remember, and I will send my prayer to His throne," he came from the bottom; he came to the top.

You're coming from the bottom, and the fish—even the fish couldn't eat him up.

You know, the fish just discovered, "Look at this. This one will be sweet meat."

Your body will not be sweet meat in their mouth, and couldn't even hurt him.

And Jonah did not have to go for rehabilitation somewhere after he came out of that fish.

When you leave here, you don't need any other rehabilitation.

Everything has taken place.

And so, in the presence of God:

"...there is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

—Psalm 16:11

Pleasures forevermore.

Everything good you have missed in the past—pleasures forevermore.

A new day has begun for you.

New life has come for you.

The Lord is blessing you right now.

He's turning everything around in your life right now.

In Acts chapter 3, look at verse 19. It says:

"Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out..."

—Acts 3:19

Now, repent doesn't mean that you begin to cry and cry and cry.

That's not repentance.

It just means change your mind. Turn around.

You've been looking in this direction, and the direction is not bringing peace of mind. It's not bringing victory in your life. It's not bringing joy in your life.

Repent.

That just means turn away.

You're looking at something that gives you depression, that gives you weakness, that makes you feel like you're almost going to die, that makes you believe and perceive God will never forgive you.

Turn away from there and turn this other direction, and your forgiveness is guaranteed, in Jesus' name.

Your salvation is guaranteed, in Jesus' name.

And your healing, your deliverance, your victory, and your dominion—guaranteed, in Jesus' name.

"Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out."

When you come to the Lord, He blots out all your sins.

How many sins?

He wipes them out. He cleans them up, and He doesn't even allow the remembrance of those sins anymore.

And if you need that, all you need to do is turn around and face the Lord, and you have that, in Jesus' name.

And also, your sickness—your sickness will be blotted out.

All the consequences of sin will be blotted out.

Everything you carry about the bad luck and this and that—everything blotted out tonight, in Jesus' name.

Then it says:

"When the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord."

—Acts 3:19

Say it out: "When refreshing comes."

You've been dry. You've been sorrowful. It's like famine is going on in your life and your family. No food to eat, and you look here and there and say, "We're in the same condition too."

You've come to the presence of the Lord tonight. Go back home and receive abundance.

Because we've come to the presence of the Lord, everything negative is taken away. Everything oppressive is taken away. Everything that makes us cry and cry and cry is taken away, in Jesus' name.

Everything that makes you say, "I wonder why this? Why this?"—everything blotted out tonight, in Jesus' name.

Because the times—plural—the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

For you. For me.

You've got it today. For me, it will come, in Jesus' name.

What Seest Thou?

Now, when I tell you to stand up, you will stand. You will stand like you never stood before.

When I tell you now, pray. Open your mouth and ask the Lord. You will pray and you will ask for what you have never asked for.

When you stand, you stand not like somebody who is barely living, almost collapsing.

Look up.

Stand. Stand right. Stand up. Stand well.

And stand with confidence. Stand with joy, knowing that every problem you brought, every sickness you brought, every depression you brought, every negative thing you brought—everything is cleared away from your life now, in Jesus' name.

Tell the Lord. Tell the Lord. Tell the Lord. Tell the Lord, what are you getting tonight?

Why are you here tonight?

What challenge? What problem do you have weighing you down today?

Call upon the name of the Lord. With Him, nothing shall be impossible.

In Him, no regret. No remorse. No loss.

In His presence, no sickness can stand. No power can stand. You are in the presence of the Lord today.

There's salvation in His presence. There's power in His presence. There's deliverance in His presence. Miracles in His presence. Authority in His presence.

Tell Him. Tell Him. Tell Him: "What seest thou?"

You don't see barrenness anymore.

You don't see fruitlessness anymore.

You see well.

You see salvation?

You see well.

You see forgiveness?

You see well.

Everything good, every good thing that you see will come upon your life.

You see healing?

You see well. It will be performed.

Deliverance and dominion—don't you see that?

You see well. It will be performed. It will be done.

I see wonders in your life.

And if you see those wonders in your life, you have seen well. You have seen well. It will be done.

No more crying. No more weeping.

See well.

See the promises performed in your life.

See the goodness of God performed in your life.

See the glory coming from on high into your life, into your family.

You see well, and it will be done.

You see great possibilities.

You see well. It will be done.

You repent of sin.

You reject every evil.

You turn away from every terrible, weakening, sinful habit in your life, and you say, "I see forgiveness."

You see well. You see well.

It will be done. It will be done.

I see God's favor.

I see God's grace.

I see divine ability coming into me, so I can do what I've never been able to do before.

You see well. It will be done.

No more like a dry rod.

Now you are fruitful.

Now you are successful.

I see well. I see well.

Believe it.

It is done!

The Word Is in Your Mouth

I've given you the power and the authority.

Root out. Root it out.

Every plant the heavenly Father has not planted in your life, root it out.

Pull it down. Pull each one down.

The Lord has saved you for progress, for success, for achievement, for joy, for victory, for dominion, for total freedom.

Anything standing there before you, pull it down. Destroy it.

With Christ in you has come to destroy all the works of the devil.

Destroy that thing.

The Word is in your mouth.

Throw it down. Throw it down.

Don't complain anymore: "They'll not allow me to succeed. They'll not allow me to make it."

You decide.

You determine.

You'll make it, and you will make it.

He has stirred you up to build, to plant, to achieve, to succeed.

The Word is right there.

Whatever you have asked, know that it is done.

Whatever you have rooted up, know it is rooted out.

Whatever you pulled down, know it is pulled down.

Whatever you have destroyed—the work of the devil—know it is destroyed.

Whatever you have thrown down, no more in your body.

No more in your head.

No more in your life.

No more in your family.

It is done.

Healing—done.

Deliverance—done.

Authority—done.

Dominion—done.

Fruitfulness—done.

Progress—done.

Success—done.

Health—confirmed.

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen!

The Word Confirmed

Like never before, the Lord assures you that this night was because of you. And what He does now will not be a common, average, normal day-to-day miracle.

A special miracle.

A special healing.

A special deliverance.

Something you never saw in this fashion.

And as you go back home, that miracle, that wonder, will be bubbling inside your heart.

Joy.

Joy.

Your heart will be full of joy.

Your Saviour is ever near.

That's the reason why, as you go back tonight, like no other night, there'll be joy unspeakable in your heart.

If you have prayed for forgiveness, the Lord has forgiven you.

If you prayed for restoration, the Lord has restored you.

If you have prayed for victory, I don't want you to be falling into that, falling into that. The Lord has given you victory.

If you have prayed for healing, you are supposed to go for maybe an operation or whatever, and you say, "I don't want that. I want to spend the money in another way." I am healed.

You are healed. You are healed.

They say depression, mental problems are almost flying in the air, and that people, because of what is happening here and there, have depression. They have, you know, brain problems.

For you hearing my voice now, depression is gone, in Jesus' name.

They say there's a spirit moving about everywhere, pushing this one, pushing this one: "Kill yourself." Pastor, I'm hearing that kind of voice too.

That voice is silenced forever, in Jesus' name.

You're no more the man you used to be.

You're no more the woman you used to be.

You're no more the boy or the girl you used to be.

Life has come.

Abundant life has come.

Strong, healthy life has now come.

Confirmation in your life.

Where are you?

I praise God for you.

I see somebody that will never remain the same as he ever was, as she ever was.

I see somebody who was giving up. And I see you standing at the bottom of that ladder. "I will climb again. I failed in the past. Failure is rooted out. I will succeed again."

Everybody, raise up that hand there. A new day for everyone.

Prayer for a New Day

Father, in Jesus' name, God of love, God of mercy, God of compassion, God of power, Lord, I bring everyone, young and old, men and women, I bring everyone before You now.

Receive them, in Jesus' name.

Every sin of the past, every failure of the past, forgive them. Cleanse them. Wash them. Blot them out, in Jesus' name.

Sickness of whatever name, sickness of whatever description, I command: be healed, in Jesus' name.

Every work of the devil, every curse, every pain, every recurring sickness, right now, from every line, I root it out, in Jesus' name.

From your lungs, that sickness is rooted out.

From your liver, from your kidney, that sickness is rooted out.

From your brain, from your blood vessel, that sickness is rooted out, in Jesus' name.

The pain at the neck, the pain at the knee, the pain at the shoulder—rooted out now, in Jesus' name.

And all kinds of deformity, all kinds of plague running in the family—in the family tonight, the night of authority and power on your life.

From your body, all that generational whatever, I root everything out, in Jesus' name.

Peace in your heart.

Peace in your brain.

Peace in your system.

Peace in your thoughts.

And as you go home, you go a different man.

A different woman.

A different boy.

A different girl.

The failure is turned inside out.

From this moment, success will follow you.

Goodness will follow you.

Divine energy is injected into you right now, in Jesus' name.

All those negative, negative, negative things you couldn't even shake away, they are shaken away from your life.

Healing—you have got.

Health—you have got.

Deliverance—you have got.

Dominion—you have got.

Provision—you have got.

Promotion—you have got.

And the desire to live and live and live well—you've got it now, in Jesus' name.

Go back home with joy.

Go back home with satisfaction.

Go back home with power.

The Word is now in your mouth.

Any day, any time you see something you don't appreciate in your life, speak the Word.

Heaven will confirm your word.

We thank You, Lord, because we know You have answered.

It is done.

In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

About Living Sermons

Living Sermons is a Spirit-led publishing platform dedicated to transforming timeless messages of God's servants into books that can reach and impact lives across the world.

Our mission is simple: to preserve the wisdom, revelation, and anointing carried in the preached Word and make it accessible in formats that can be studied, shared, and revisited for generations. By turning sermons into high-quality Christian books and eBooks, we extend the life and influence of each message far beyond the pulpit.

At Living Sermons, we believe that the preached Word is living and powerful (Hebrews 4:12). Every sermon carries truth that can instruct, comfort, rebuke, inspire, and transform. Our role is to faithfully capture these words, polish them for clarity and readability, and present them in a way that maintains the preacher's unique voice and anointing.

Through our work, messages that might otherwise be heard once are preserved as lasting resources for teaching, devotion, discipleship, and evangelism. These books are designed not just for reading but for equipping believers, strengthening families, and advancing the Kingdom of God.

Living Sermons—the preached Word in lasting form.

Our Vision

To become the world's largest digital archive for ebooks transcribed from live sermons, preserving and spreading the spoken Word of God across nations and generations.

Our Mission

At LivingSermons.com, our mission is to take the living voice of God spoken through His servants and transform it into accessible PDF resources, making salvation-centred truth available to the ends of the earth. We believe that the spoken Word carries divine power, and by preserving these messages in written form, we help extend their reach beyond pulpits, borders, and generations.

Why We Exist

Many life-changing sermons are preached and forgotten while some deteriorate over time. We exist to preserve these divine utterances, making them available for study, meditation, discipleship, and spiritual growth. Through this work, we are committed to ensuring that no revelational truth is lost, but that every inspired message can continue to speak, heal, transform, and bring men into the knowledge of Christ.
